

Get a teaching scholarship and get ready to take some notes!

There has never been a better time to become a public school teacher in Western Australia. The Department of Education and Training is offering teaching scholarships with fantastic benefits – you can receive up to $60,000.

Who can apply?

There are a variety of scholarships available if you:

- are going into your final year of a Bachelor of Education
- have a degree and are considering a Graduate Diploma in Education.

What's in it for you?

- A teaching scholarship worth up to $60,000.
- A guaranteed job when you graduate.
- Additional financial benefits during your first and second year of teaching.
- Permanency after only two years of teaching in a rural public school.

Priority teaching areas

We are particularly looking for people to teach in the following areas:

- Early Childhood
- Primary
- Secondary
 - Agriculture
 - Design and Technology
 - English
 - Home Economics
 - Mathematics
 - Science (Physics and Chemistry).

Scholarships for the following secondary teaching areas will also be considered: Health and Physical Education, Languages (Indonesian, Italian, Japanese), Music, Science – Biological, Society and Environment, Technology and Enterprise (Business, Computing), Special Needs and School Psychology.

Closing date

Applications close
Tuesday 30 September 2008.

To find out more and to apply for a scholarship visit Teaching WA at det.wa.edu.au

Note:

A scholarship payment is considered assessable income and subject to income tax. Scholarship applicants should seek advice from the Australian Taxation Office or a financial advisor regarding the scholarship and their financial circumstances.

If you receive Centrelink payments please be aware that these may be affected if you are successful in receiving a scholarship. More information will be available at interview. If applicable, scholarship applicants should seek advice from Centrelink.

Apply now for a teaching scholarship!