A successful conference presentation involves presenting your work in an interesting and engaging manner. For spoken presentations this means more than keeping your head down and reading your paper. This seminar will discuss ideas on how to keep your audience’s attention and impress them with a well-structured, lucid argument. presentations.

This workshop is presented by Dr Caroline Fleay who will draw on her own and others’ experiences in delivering conference presentations. The seminar will be interactive and provide you with the opportunity to practice the ideas discussed.

Curtin University Doctoral or Master (Research) students, honour students, early career researchers and supervisors welcome. (Please note our workshops do not meet the supervisor registry requirements). Presenters’ powerpoints, when available, can be located on our website - hgso.curtin.edu.au
