This workshop communicates current best practice techniques for interviews, focussing on semi-structured interviews. It addresses both academic rigour and ethics in interviewing. It runs through the stages of planning and conducting interviews, with a brief overview of interview analysis using thematic coding.

Tod Jones is a Senior Lecturer in Geography who has fifteen years of experience conducting interviews and analysing interview data. His research looks at cultural economies and policies, focussing on heritage in Australia and Indonesia.

Curtin University Doctoral or Master (Research) students, honour students, early career researchers and supervisors welcome. (Please note our workshops do not meet the supervisor registry requirements). Presenters’ powerpoints, when available, can be located on our website - hgso.curtin.edu.au/student_info/workshops-1.cfm
